Amendment to Reapportionment Bill Would Make It Impossible.

Washington, August 3.—Bearing an initiative and referendum feature to safeguard against gerrymandering in a number of States, the congressional reapportionment bill passed the Serate to-day. It fixes the future House membership at 433—with two more when Arisona and New Mexico attain State-hodd—instead of the present 291. There was not even the formality of a rollicall on the final vote. Two amendments, both offered by Senator Burion, of Ohlo, were attached to the Blouse measure, and on these a conference with the House will be held, all that stands in the way of President Taft's approval of the bill, which is to take effect March 4. 1913.

The increase in the membership of the House will mean an added expense to the country of approximately $400.000 a year. The salaries of the forty-two new members will agarregate $315.000. Seate will have at least one clerk at $1,500, which will add $63,000 to the total Mileage and other incidental expenses will still further increase the sum, bringing it to the amount first named.

No State Reduced.

No State Reduced.

No State Reduced.

Under this decennial reappointment there is to be no reduction in the membership from any State. The average congressional district will contain over 17,000 greater population than at present, the average district comprising 21,577 under the new plan.

The initiative and referendum provision was tacked on to the bill just before its passage to-day, It was one of the Burton amendments.

It provided that in the increase in the representation of any State, the redistricting, instead of being done by the State Legislature, as provided by the House bill, should be "in the manner provided by the laws" of the State, thus leaving the redistricting subject to the initiative and referendum laws wherever they have been placed on the States' statute books.

These States' statute books.

These States have adopted the initiative and referendum in the form of constitutional amendments: Oregon. Oktahom, Nevada Missouri, Montana, South Dakota, Colorado, Arkansas and Maine. Utah has adopted a similar amendment, but the prevision is inoperative because of failure of the Legislature to enact the necessary accompanying legislation. Besides these, in the following States such an amendment has been submitted by the Legislatures, but has not yet been voted upon: California, Washington, Wyoming, North Dakota, Nebraska, Florida and Idaho.

Was Admiral Togo Ever Admiral Dewey's "Boy"?

Both Admiral Togo and Admiral Dewey would deny it, but some people who know a great deal believe it, and Five years ago a well-known Virginia novelist was dining in London one night at the house of a retired lieu-

"I have heard a story about Admiral Dewey which is much too good to be true, but please don't throw doubt on it, because it is a gem. This is the story: Some years ago Admiral Dewey, then Captain Dewey, met Admiral, then Captain, Togo at dinner. They were very chummy, and over the cigars Togo You seem to have forgotten me entirely, but I remember you quite well.' Captain Dewey made some polite evasion, when Togo grinned and replied: 'Oh, I know you all right. I was your "boy" for two years."

Everybody laughed at the story, and

There is a report on file at the Navy Department, soon after the time that the Virginia novelist preferred to believe it. On her return to Washington some months later she was walking one day on the street with a distin-Admiral Dewey. The woman, by way of a joke, told the admiral the story on him she had heard at the London dinner. Instead of an immediate denial or a laughing disclaimer, Admiral Dewey suddenly turned the conversation, and in a moment or two turned and walked off. As he turned away the older admiral said significantly:

"Did you notice how diplomatic Dewey was? It is very likely true."

might have occurred, calling attention to the fact that some of the Japanese ADMIRAL TOGO on board of our warships were discovered to be ensigns in the Japanese Navy. Togo was always an enterg fellow, and he may have brushed Dewey's uniform and rubbed up his sword and around his belt for two years. I don't think Dewey wants to hear that London story any more. Now, of course, everybody is going to deny everything, but as the older admiral said. "It is very likely true,"
